

Resist Global Fiction

Global Faction

You know what we do

Resist global fiction

D.I.S.L. Automatic

Yo

Global Faction, no relaxing, only action

No subtraction, no division, just addition

Of our people, with a vision

Our mission's fighting tyrants and resisting global fiction

Unity's what we believe in, peace and love is our religion

Be the change you want to see, free yourself from this mental prison

Lead the way for others so maybe they'll make the same decisions

Revolution is a process, it's about the way we living

Spreading knowledge, truth and wisdom until we reboot the system

Get big on them, means we growing and expanding

The Global Faction, no peace for warriors around the planet

Listen, all my people share the same vision

United by the cause, so we on the
same mission

Living for revolution, playing our position

Fighting for freedom is the meaning of our existence

Global Faction, resist global fiction

Resist global fiction
Global Faction, resist global fiction
Throw your fists up if you on the
same mission

Hey yo, we live for the cause, we'll die for the cause
We mount up and we ride for the cause
We not gonna pause, we not gonna quit
We stand tall and we not gonna sit Down, automatically spit rhymes out
This lyrical ammunition, we here on a spiritual mission Resisting global fiction is the
meaning of our existence
Fighting imperialism and American terrorism Israeli Zionism and systemic racism, sexism, nationalism
And anything false from the master vision Raptivism is the way we fight against the people who are in control
They can try but they will never mute the music of our souls

same vision
United by the cause, so we on the
same mission
Living for revolution, playing our
position
Fighting for freedom is the
Global Faction, resist global fiction
Resist global fiction
Global Faction, resist global fiction
Throw your fists up if you on the
same mission

same vision

United by the cause, so we on the
same mission

position

Resist global fiction

Global Faction, resist global fiction

same mission
